TO J. L. M.

My eyes were caught by a pair of brown,
Away, 'way down in a Kansas town:
They pleased me so, my eyes I cast down
Away, 'way down in a Kansas town.
They bothered me so they made me frown,
Away, 'way down in a Kansas town,
And I had a notion myself to drown,
Away, 'way down in a Kansas town,
When I found they were engaged to a pair of brown,
Away, 'way spin an Illinois town,
With spirits "cast down,"

Sweet charity and subtle pleasure are hand in hand to trip the "light fantastic toe" on Thanksgiving night at the Eagle Rifles hall. The Entre Nous club, celebrated for its charity, its Inscious suppers and its brilliant balls, will excel itself in this effort, inspired by the noble charity which it seeks to aid the worthy old Benevolent Home. This pioneer hospit-il of Wichita, which has succored so many sick and needy, cails for the sympathy and aid of the public and the Entre Nous club by giving this ball is opening the way by which the young and the happy whilst en-joying themselves can help the sick and needy. Let everyone buy a ticket.

endered and interesting program at the Hypatia last Monday. Mrs. Julia Richards read an excellent paper sparkling with humor on "The ideal home," Mrs. Spangler read a selection entitled "Too much knowledge." The topic of the day "Is co-operative housekeeping pratical?" was discussed affirmatively by Mrs. Olive Reade and negatively by Mrs. Dr. Bennett.

It is astonishing how many good things can be said on both sides of any question. Mrs. Doyle recited an original poem en-titled "Literature." Hypatia boasts the possession of three poets. There was sev-eral visitors present, one of whom, Mrs. Wallace, favored the club with a fine instrumental selection. The present club room is very inviting indeed, having all the attractiveness of a home, with the ample room needed by this growing association which will soon celebrate its fourth anniversary.

Monday evening Mr. J. S. Sheppard was tendered a pleasant and novel sur-prise at his home 418 East Central. The ecasion was his fiftieth birthday and a large number of congratulatory letters from his foreign friends and relatives had been received without his knowledge and retained for his perusal till this hour. Mrs. Sheppard prepared a palatable supper for the guests and this with a conge-nial company and numerous social amusenents rendered this a verywarm and happy evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Walters, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Allee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.
